“All the Word to All the World”
Foreword

After many hours of hard work with stuttering typewriters, drawings which had to be discarded, glue that wouldn't stick, cameras that wouldn't focus, ideas that were never realized, and plenty of proofreading, we submit to the Faculty, students, former students, and friends of Trinity College this 1959 Beacon with the hope that our effort will be rewarded by your appreciation and enjoyment of it.

Since we have tried to exalt Christ on these pages, we pray that your heart will be blessed as you look through and read the contents.

All the Word to
All the World
A teacher with untiring effort, a loyal devotion to his Alma Mater, and an earnest love for the Lord is the beloved Mr. Bartels, one of our faithful instructors for a number of years. His heart is definitely with the college, and he is continually making opportunities for the inexperienced students to teach at his Spanish Mission in Tampa.

Mr. Bartels is a wonderful example of a Christian who is devoted to the Lord's work. It is a joy to visit the home of Mr. & Mrs. Bartels, for the presence of the Lord is felt there. Because of his love and zeal for the lost, he has founded a work in Tampa among the Spanish people and the Lord is richly blessing their efforts there.

Mr. Bartels is never too busy to answer questions and counsel with the student who may need help; he is genuinely interested in each pupil. In every one of his classes the Word is taught and more and more we realize the privileges that belong to the Christian. While in the ministry, on the mission field, or in any other work as the Lord leads in the future years, these lessons will prove to be helpful and valuable. As he stands before a group to teach, one can see the beauty of the Lord in him. To this beloved man of God, we dedicate the Trinity College Beacon of 1959.

To The Class Of ’59:

Living life is “Big Business” . . . Swiftly has the time gone by while you were in our classrooms. It seems but yesterday since you crossed the “WELCOME” mat at Trinity College and began your preparation for a life of Christian service. Lessons learned in and out of the classrooms, we trust will have great influence on the service you will be rendering for Christ.

Every life exerts an influence wherever it may be lived. Life is somewhat like a broadcasting station—sending out an influence in many directions. Lives free from the static of sin do the most good in reaching others with the message of Christ.

Many times the unconscious influence is more profound, in its ministry of blessing others, than that of which we are conscious. A life influenced by Christ will influence others for Christ.

Christian influence cannot be confined to one place or age. Words spoken for Christ, deeds of kindness performed in the Name of Christ, messages written honoring Christ, have a way of going into many lands and lives. Think of the saints of old, whose influence bless us today.

You may travel far, the future may hold success or adversity, loss or gain, success or failure but always remember you are a part of Trinity College. May God’s blessing be abundantly upon you as you serve Him in the days to come. Time and life are precious, use them well.

Yours for Youth,

W. T. Watson
President

STAFF

Upholding the standards of the past publications of the yearbook has been the aim of the 1959 Beacon staff, and at the same time make additions that would honor our Lord.

Proof-reading, typing, drawing and long hours have been the formula for this production, in order to get it to press at the required time.

We hope that this yearbook will be a blessing to all who read it and that Christ might be glorified on each page.

"What's Cooking?"

The school year of 1958-59 opened with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Cook for their second consecutive year. Their sparkling personalities along with their delicious home-cooked meals have captured the hearts of the students and there would sure be an empty place without them.

Radio-TV Choir

"This is my story, this is my song." With this another radio program is started. For a half hour each Saturday and for fifteen minutes twice on Sunday, the Gospel message is given forth in music -- trios, duets, solos, quartets, ensembles, and the radio choir.

Preparation for these programs takes many late hours from the students participating. When we stop to consider that what is being done through the radio programs in getting the Gospel to many who would otherwise not hear it, or who are without Christ, we know that all of the time spent in preparing these programs is never wasted, but invested. We also know that we cannot do them without God's guidance so we look to Him and ask, "Saviour, like a Shepherd, lead us!"

Officers of the choir are: Eddie Greene, President; Susie Staats, Secretary-Treasurer; Donna Rogers, Librarian.

FRONT ROW, Left to Right: B. Lytle, Choir Director; Norma Gowell; Susie Staats; Phyllis Babcock; Donna Rogers. SECOND ROW: Loretta Nicolai; Carol Helb; Joyce Broadwater; Nadine Walls. Ever since 1932, when Trinity College was founded by Dr. W. T. Watson, it has always been known to have a high-rating music department. This factor has been true these years because of the fine music faculty God has blessed us with in the past and during the present time.

Such noted men as J. W. Van DeVenter who wrote such songs as "I Surrender All" and "Sunlight" gave our school not only a fine well-rounded education to develop students for the field of music, but the inspiration of their Spirit-filled lives made a lasting impression upon those students who were trained under their ministry.

We thank God for such teachers as these who devoted their talents for the winning of souls. But we are equally appreciative of the wonderful teachers of our music department today.

Under the guidance and training of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Markham, such soloists as Ponsy Pennington and many others have gone out into the evangelistic music field to bless the hearts of thousands of persons.

The second semester of each year, Mr. and Mrs. Markham direct the Trinity College General Chorus through a season of sacred concerts. These concerts take place in the various churches of the surrounding communities.

The message carried by these songs and testimonies of singers are designed to present the Lord Jesus Christ to a lost and dying world. The success of this choir is attributed to the prayers that are raised concerning this Trinity College General Chorus and the patient, skillful directing of Mr. and Mrs. Markham. Never could enough be said of the fine work these two who are so dear to the hearts of both the alumni and students of Trinity College.

MIMEOGRAPHED NOTE DEPARTMENT

Pictured above are two of the busiest people at Trinity College. Cutting the stencils is a tedious and meticulous job and is aptly handled by Sylvester Wilson. In charge of the note department is Mrs. Edith Myers. We at Trinity have a unique system in the classroom. Since the majority of the classes are taught on a lecture basis, there is much note taking to be done by the students. The note department makes it possible for all the students to purchase reasonably the entire course in group mimeographed sheets. This relieves the student of the burdens of taking notes in class and allows him to focus his entire attention upon the lecture.

When the new notes for the various courses come out from time to time, the busiest spot on campus is the office of Mrs. Edith Myers. How we thank the Lord that He sent our way a lady with the bookkeeping experience and know-how, to handle and co-ordinate the work with mimeographed notes.

The final advantage of these notes and the note department is the fact that we will carry these notes with us around the world to our various fields of ministry and use them to refresh our minds on the various subjects. The value of these notes will not be fully realized until the day comes, with our ministries completed, and we hear the words of the Master, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."
Student Life
Youth and Life

One of the top attractions of Trinity College is the Youth and Life series which starts the first Saturday of the school year and continues through the early part of May. It is a meeting keyed to the enthusiasm of youth and yet with an emphasis that attracts all those who are interested in a fast-moving Gospel service. The Youth and Life series makes good use of the talent of the students as well as bringing in outside musical groups. We have had the opportunity of hearing some of the leading speakers of the nation, and of the world.

Dr. Chen

Rev. TITUS
Pastor of the second largest Methodist Church in India.

This past year we have been privileged to hear Dr. Chen (pictured at the Left) from China. Dr. Chen was Shiang-Kai-Chek's personal pastor. Other Youth and Life services featured Johnny Woodhouse, Rev. John Streeter, some of the latest Billy Graham films, not to mention many of the local speakers who assist in the services.

This year the Youth and Life series have been completely in the hands of the students of Trinity College. Early in the year committees were selected to schedule the speakers, special music and every phase of the service.
Chapel

If you would like to hear local speakers, evangelists, nationally known authors, or student speakers, we suggest that you attend our Chapel programs at Trinity College. On Monday morning we have what is called "Report Hour." This service is just what it is called; the students are given the opportunity to testify and report to the others concerning his activities and blessings of the weekend. On Wednesday and Friday, speakers and special programs are presented for the student body. In these services we hear from missionaries from all over the world, local pastors, and many of our own students. We had the wonderful opportunity this year to have Ruth Stull as one of our speakers. Mrs. Stull, commonly known as the "First Lady of Missions," is the author of the inspiring book, "Sand and Stars."

We enjoy all of the visiting speakers that we have, but there is always a highlight in Chapel that thrills us... that is when Dr. Watson is scheduled to speak. Yes, it is good to assemble ourselves together in CHAPEL.

Vespers

Anyone not interested in music, ought not to come around Trinity College on Sunday afternoon. Beginning the first week in January, Trinity College presents a series of musical programs known as the Sun-coast Musical Vespers. This is a solid hour of music, consisting of solos, duets, trios, quartets, and choirs. Even though these services are entertaining, the primary purpose is to get the Gospel to those who would not ordinarily attend services were it not for the music. One of the major highlights of the Vesper services is the visiting of Chief Silver Tongue. Chief Silver Tongue has been one of our regular visitors and Vespers singers for many years. We cannot deny the fact that we have our largest attendance when the chief is scheduled to sing for the Vesper Service.
WELCOME!!

Just in time for breakfast.

But now you must help with the dishes.

Mmm-Mmm! That's good!

Anyone for coffee? I have two cups.

The Mail-man hasn't come yet.

Bed-time snacks, or is it SMACKS?

Can't you see that you're bothering me?
Dr. Robert McMillan is the pastor of the historic Hope Congregational Church of St. Louis, Missouri. We enjoyed a real feast each time he opened God's Word.

Rev. Johnny Woodhouse is an enthusiastic youth speaker. He lifted our hearts with his singing and instrumental specials as well as with his speaking.

Dr. E. C. Bragg, a faithful member of our faculty again thrilled our hearts with his Spirit-filled messages.

Clifford Lewis, President of the Kansas City Bible College, brought a helpful message on soul winning.

Rev. John Corts, pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle and a member of Trinity's faculty, brought a stirring message on prayer.
Dr. L. G. Gebb is pastor of the Bible Presbyterian Church of Lakeland, Florida. The Holy Spirit used his messages from God's Word to bless our hearts.

Dr. O. E. Williams, an official of Trinity College, and a leading evangelist and Bible teacher from Erie, Pennsylvania. His definite style of preaching exalted Christ which caused our hearts to be drawn closer to Him.

Rev. Boyer, a missionary from Africa, brought us a first-hand report on the work being done there.

Dr. W. T. Watson, our President, conducted most of the meetings and challenged our hearts for Christ.

In Memory of

Miss Jessie E. Reinhart

Miss Jessie E. Reinhart, a charter member of the executive board of Trinity College of Clearwater, went to be with the Lord Friday morning, January 23, 1959. Miss Reinhart was 81 years of age and had been a friend of youth through her entire life.

When Trinity College was organized in 1932 (then known as the Florida Bible Institute), Miss Reinhart accepted a place on the board of the invitation of the founder of the school, Dr. W. T. Watson. Through most of those years she served faithfully as the secretary of the board. She was one of two of the original incorporators of the school.

In the early days of the school, during the days of the well remembered depression, Miss Reinhart by prayer and with her means helped in a very substantial way. Her gift was in the form of an annuity and she often stated, "the best investment I ever made was in Trinity College for not have I only received my interest faithfully, but I have had a definite part in the training of young people for the Lord's work."

Through the years Miss Reinhart was a close friend of Dr. & Mrs. Watson and other officials and workers in the school. Even though she never married, she often referred to the young men and women who had attended Trinity College as "my boys and girls."

Miss Reinhart will long be remembered by the students and faculty of Trinity College. Her life of praise was a benediction to all.
