Trinity College

Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman who needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” (II Tim. 2:15)

Mission Statement:
To equip men and women for ministry through effective biblical, general, and professional education.
"It has been a joy this past year to work with the Executive Vice President and Dean, Dr. Bill Lanpher, as well as with the faculty and staff and each of the students at trinity College. We appreciate the association Toccoa Falls College has with Trinity College. The good increase in enrollment indicates a great future for this college. We value very much the heritage of Trinity College since 1932, and through the years since then. We are looking forward to the future as this institution increases in students and its place among the Bible colleges of America. It is my prayer that, until our Lord Jesus Christ returns, Trinity College will continue to train workers for his church throughout the world."

Paul L. Alford, D.D.
President
Fan the Flame!

For the years you have been at Trinity College we have hoped that we were just igniting the flame of the gift of God in your lives! We have seen it in your eyes and soul. God has been at work at Trinity in your years here. As you leave, remember behind you are your friends and the faculty and staff fo Trinity. Never let the flame die out. Always fan the flame of the gift of God thit is in you through the experiences you have had at Trinity College!

(2 Timothy 1:6,7)

Bill W. Lanpher
Dr. Williams is like a father to many of us. As senior professor he brought insight to the many wonders of the Bible and mentored us to new heights in biblical scholarship. In the classroom Dr. Williams uses “precious” real life illustrations to help students understand how the Bible relates to the world today. “Slick Willy” is most remembered for his thorough tests that can invoke fear in the hearts of the most learned students. We will always remember and hold dear the time spent with the good Doctor.

“Amen and Amen.”

We would like to thank Frank and Pam DiPronio for all their dedication to Trinity College and the student body. For many years they have selfishly given their time, love, and aspirin to all those students that needed it, regardless of the time of day or night they were called upon, to both dorm and day students alike. They have spent time listening to any student that has needed a soft ear and they have also given much needed advice to many students who have asked of them. They have always been more than willing to answer any question that the students might have had. They have also given their time to sit down and fellowship with the students, albeit if it was a party, cookout, or just watching a good movie with us. The students have always been the center of their concerns. We have had the privilege of watching them as a family and learning from their example. After watching them over the years, we must conclude that they are two people that we can be proud to dedicate this yearbook to. Professor Frank and Pam DiPronio may you be blessed and honored of God always.

Frank, Pam, Marissa, and Selina DiPronio

Dr. Gary Williams
The students would like to thank the faculty and staff of Trinity College for their dedication and willingness to share with us their vast wealth of knowledge. It is our hope that we can pass on what we have learned to all the people that we will encounter as we go through this life, so that when we all stand before the Lord he will be able to say to us, “Well done good and faithful servants.”

On behalf of all the students, Thank You.

Lord, teach me to let go of all,
For I do not wish to stumble nor fall.

Please help me to not look back.

THIS LIFE

Lord in this life,
We may not know how to let go of everything,
We may not know how to truly love.
We may not know your ultimate goal.
We may not live perfect lives.

Lord in this life,
You show us how to let go
You show us how to truly love.
You reveal to us your ultimate goal.
You tell us you do not want us to be perfect.

And Lord, Thank You for in this life,

You'll let go of everything
You are true love.
Your love for us is one of your ultimate goals
You are perfect

The new Trinity Quest program was implemented last August and God has blessed it tremendously. We have three cohorts started with approximately thirty students registered and we are well underway to start four more cohorts this next school year. It has been exciting to see these students who range in age from twenty-two to sixty-two work at completing their degree and not have to put their careers on hold. I have the privilege of talking personally with them and some of their stories bring great joy to my heart. The statement that I hear most often of these students is, "I have always wanted to finish my degree but I did not have the opportunity because of my job and other responsibilities. The Quest program is like a dream come true." From cattle ranchers to pastors, these students come from all walks of life but their heart is to be used by the Lord through this education. This is what makes Trinity Quest most exciting.

Before I came to Trinity, I didn't even know what SGA was. Now, I have served as SGA president for two years, and it has really impacted my life. My leadership skills have been challenged as I work with class representatives who voice the concerns and needs of the students. The best part of being in SGA is planning the semester's activities and seeing everyone enjoying the fellowship that naturally follows when we all get together. SGA is vital to the student life here at Trinity, and I am proud to be part of it.

The mission of the GCMF on the campus of Trinity College is to keep high levels of world missions awareness and involvement in the student body.
Our goal is to awaken other students to the heart of God, by equipping, encouraging, and stimulation through power of prayer, praise and proclamation, with the intended purpose of mobilizing students toward the task of global evangelization; with a view of bringing all nations to the saving knowledge of the Grace of God through the Lord Jesus Christ and ultimately foster a true heart of worship.

The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts, and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. But in fact God had arranged the parts in the body, everyone of them, just as he wanted them to be. As it is, there are many parts, but one body. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it. If one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.

THE VOTES ARE IN!
CHAPEL

Students and staff work together to make chapel a time of fellowship and praise unto the Lord.

Through chapel's time the Word of God is presented through moments of praise and worship, prayer, guest speakers, awards, and many other touching events.
We learn to let go and let God guide us through His Word and His servants.

If we claim to have fellowship with Him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth. But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, His Son, purifies us from all sin.

He will not let your foot slip- He who watches over you will not slumber... The LORD will keep you from all harm- He will watch over your life; the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.
